

Brint R Compton

HC 72 Box A, Browning, MT 59417
406-338-3810 Office
406-391-1100 Cell

Objective

My objective is to build a business that provides a stable income for our company. I enjoy a fast paced, ever changing work environment. I have extensive experience in settling disputes, solving problems, and communicating efficiently in order to turn a disagreement into a reasonable solution.

Past Employment

1998 to Present

Compton Signatures

Title searches, initial contact, certified mail, mail merges, public meetings, preliminary maps, extensive work with the BIA and Tribal Council, negotiation on partial acquisition. Title search mineral, prepare documents and drafts for the purchase of mineral leases for fee properties work through the Bureau of Indian Affairs in the purchase of mineral leases on allotted trust properties.

Locating landowners, meeting with them and explaining how their land will be affected by acquisition projects. Resolving any concerns and finding a solution that is beneficial to the company and the landowner.

Fluent in Microsoft word, Access, Excel, Auto Cad map Release 14, and digital cameras.

Education

1991 Graduated from Cut Bank High School

1992-1993 Attended Montana State University

1998-1999 Completed Auto Cad map seminars through Mountain Cad Inc.

1998-2000 Private Auto Cad schooling and various computer classes

2000-2001 Real Estate School: Received my Real Estate Sales Associates License

International Right-Of-Way Association – Past President of Chapter 45, Region 7

Courses completed:

Course 100 - Principles of Land Acquisition

Course 200 - Principles of Real Estate Negotiation

Course 401 - The Appraisal of Partial Acquisition

Course 501 - Relocation Assistance

Course 140 – Principles of Wireless Site Development

Course H006- Successful Right of Way Settlement through Mediation

Course 803- Eminent Domain Law Basics for Right of Way Professionals

Wholesale Fire Works Stores 2002 to present

Manage 5 firework stores – Cut Bank, Browning, Havre and Great Falls (2 locations)
Pyrotechnics Guild International (PGI) Member
PGI Certified Shooter- Display Fireworks (Class B Fireworks)

Mountains & Plains Wireless Owner/Manage established 2005 to present

Authorized dealer for Chinook Wireless, full line of accessories supporting the wireless industry, Espresso and coffee bar, DVD and CD rentals.

1995-1997

C&C Ranch, Manager

Haying, irrigation, farming, seeding, feeding, small mechanical work, calving and caring for 100+ cows, some financial planning and marketing of calves, hay and grain crops. Successfully bought Soybean options, followed the market, and sold for a profit

1992-1993

Pardue Feed and Farm, Feed Store Warehouse Manager

Maintaining inventory and ordering, identifying products with higher turnover. Regulate ordering to handle supply and demand. Selling product to the public, adjusting product profit margin without over pricing the customer.

1995-1997

Montana Ranch Adventures, Dude Ranch Manager

Feeding and grooming horses, creating a day adventure, marketing the business to paying customers, and composed a yearend newsletter for an advertising campaign. Organized daily rides and taught schools on safety and riding etiquette. Prepared all guests with equipment for horseback rides. Guide guests through daylong adventure through scenic Duck Lake, Montana, with the backdrop of Glacier National Park and the Rocky Mountains.

Benchmark Equipment, Parts Man

Managing inventory, working closely with the public in answering equipment questions and selling farm implement parts, and light computer work. Receiving, sending and logging shipments.

Spreader Truck Operator

Operating heavy equipment, reading maps, learning visual recognition of different fertilizers, seeds and chemicals used in farming, and calculating product per acre.

WJ Swenson Farms, Inc., Farmhand

Light mechanical work, heavy equipment operation, identifying problematic plants, harvesting, seeding, spraying, and driving truck.

Stoltz Land and Cattle, Farmhand

Surveying ditches for flood irrigation, harvesting, seeding, spraying, light mechanical work, and flood irrigation.